

NCTL Teacher Subject Specific Training:

Modern Foreign Languages

We are pleased to offer a brand new programme designed to provide training for non-specialist MFL teachers and MFL specialists who:

- are not currently teaching MFL and may need refresher training to enable a move back into MFL delivery or,
- may be looking to teach a new language in addition to their current language specialism or,
- have an advanced level qualification in either French, Spanish or Italian as a minimum and hold QTS status

Delivered by experts and combining a blend of methodology, pedagogy and language skills development, the course aims to build participant confidence in MFL delivery and help schools build up their internal capacity to meet future demands the EBacc and Progress 8 may bring around providing quality MFL teaching and learning in the classroom.

Sessions will be delivered throughout the academic year 2016-2017 as twilights here at Loreto Grammar School and will be offered in French, Spanish and Italian.

Places are limited, so early booking is recommended.

This training is provided free of charge

An outline of the sessions and dates for the year are provided below. Supplementary to these and upon registration, participants will be allocated timetabled language tutorials in order to increase and support their linguistic competence.

Should you wish to book a place/ places for your school, please contact Vicky Atherton
